HILFE

A small, rectangular, light-colored tag is shown against a plain, light background. The tag is oriented horizontally and has the words "ERSTE" and "HILFE" written on it in a dark, hand-drawn font, one above the other. The tag is tied with a piece of light-colored twine or string, which is knotted around its right edge. The string extends to the right, forming a loop and then trailing off. The lighting is soft, casting a slight shadow to the right of the tag.
